OTHER REASONS OR FURTHER EXPLANATION:

In addition to the forgoing reasons and the reasons stated at the hearing on the record, the Court adopts the recommendation and view of the factors considered by the PreTrial Services Department as to the risk of flight or non-appearance that Mr. Bhinder poses which no condition or combination of conditions can mitigate. Each of the Title 18 U.S.C. Section 3142(g) factors weigh in favor of detention when considering risk of flight. Further, the existence of an immigration detainer lodged against Mr. Bhinder means that even if the Court ordered his release, he would still be detained for immigration purposes. Lastly, the Court finds that the government did not meet its burden to show by clear and convicing evidence that no condition or combination of conditions could ensure the safety of the community.

Part IV - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the Attorney General or to the Attorney General's designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
